Towards a New Architecture by Corbusier, Le

In 1923 he published his startling manifesto of what he called "the aesthetics of modern life," Vers une architecture (Towards a New Architecture). Le Corbusier worked first at simplifying and liberating house design through the revolutionary use of new materials--particularly, reinforced concrete--and new technical ideas for mass production, which he applied in the so-called Dom-ino and the Citrohan House.

Five Points of Architecture. Early in his career, Le Corbusier developed a set of architectural principles that dictated his technique, which he called "the Five Points of a New Architecture" (French: cinq points de l'architecture moderne).They are considered to be most evident in his Villa Savoye. The five points are:
